DEDICATION TO THE PARENTS OF THE CLASS of "51"

We wish to dedicate this annual to you, our parents, whose sacrifices through our twelve years of education, made it possible that we might have the best of opportunities, and to you who have encouraged our growth by your unselfish giving of your time and money, and of your prayers. So little had we realized what you have done so that we could enjoy our school years. But now we have come to show our appreciation by dedicating this annual, plus our hearty thanks.

"WE THE FIFTY ONERS"

Here we the eleven fifty oners,
You know were angels all.

We were new to this dear school,
Twelve years ago last fall.

Just four boys and seven girls,
Left out of many more.
We've had our trials and hardships,
And also fun galore.

We always minded our teachers,
And we always had our work.
Never copied a single bit,
And yet the teachers smirk.

Well anyway we like you,
We've had fun in all your classes,
As once before I told you,
We're angel Lads and lasses.

Now to start our roll call
We find Gilbert at the head,
Over to Jeralou's on ballgame nights
And always home at twelve for bed.

Gilbert was also the captain
On our basket ball squad this year,
And to the games everyone would go
To give him a yell or cheer.

Next on the roll is Louise England,
A very good girl indeed,
She's a person who we like to have,
And every class would need.

Always willing and helpful
And sticks with us to the end,
Always had a smiling face
When things were dark and dim.

Next is Jimmy Johnson,
The kid who's six feet two,
Who used to sit behind me,
Pestering me until class was through.

He was also on the squad,
And could sing without any moans,
Remember him in the boys quartet,
Singing "Those Dry-Bones".

Next on the roll is Sue Haney,
Who works down at Rankins store.
She shouts when you run out of groceries,
"Run down to Rankins for more."

Sue was also Editor of our Annual What times we didn't have,
Getting started was the worst,
But the ending wasn't so bad.

Nest on the line is the Hughes kid
"Mize"

A quite shy pestering lad,

Who wants to be a mechanic in a garage,
Just like his dad.

LaVerne is one of our four boys,
At class meetings what a time,
The worst is when we try to get
Mr. Hughes to make up his mind.

Norma was the shouting kid of the year,
A cheerleader on the beam,
Out at the Halves and quarters,
To make a shout for our team.

She sang in the girls' trio,
In the chorus and ensembles too,
Assn't Editor of the Annual,
She had plenty of work to do.

Next is Jeanie McCreary
The little girl of the class.
Gordon loved her earrings
And Charles teased her of her ring made of glass!

Now this last year, how Jean did work.
And land the books she would carry.
Home after school to her candy shop
Not a moment of time did she tarry.

Well finally we come to Charles,
The wise crack kid of the class.
Remarked while studying foreign countries
"How would our girls look in skirts
made of glass."

How much work have you finished, Charles?
I've not finished my work,
said he.

"What are you going to do when it comes to responsibility."
Oh, I'll let the Lord take care of me.

Here we are to Audrey,
The prophet of our class,
Prophecying in the future years
Things that may come to pass.

Now home from school came Audrey,
And ever would come Flash.

Eat her supper, and change her cloths,
Then to a ball game they would dash.

The last on the roll is Mary Ann,
She said, she always did come last.
We hope that in the future, it won't
Be the same as in the past.

Golden hair and blue eyes,
She has a face that always beams,
Now Mary was a very good kid,
She was also President of Y-Teens.

Now this is all my classmates
You've heard the roll, from beginning to end,
To tell the rest that's all of
you,
How much fun this school has been.
Now before saying farewell to
you,
And to things that will be in the past,
I'm signing off with the best
to my classmates,
The Presidents of the Senior Class.

Buddy Beards*

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY "1951"

The class of nineteen hundred and fifty one started out with fifty-two pupils in the first grades. Of the original fifty-two pupils Mary Ann Zimmerman; Jean McCreary; Norma Jean Linn; LaVerne Hughes; Gilbert Campbell; and Jimmy Johnson remained. While many were lost as transfers the class gained Dorothy Cramer; Audrey Vermillion; Sue Haney; Louise England; and Charles Shaw.

We had many important events in our grade school such as the grade programs we put on every year and the hikes and parties we enjoyed. The outstanding event was our sixth grade promotion exercises when we were promoted to the High School Building. Our next years were made worthy by our clubs. They were F.H.A.; Y-Teens; Hi-Y; music and sports clubs.

In our Junior year we gave our first public performance, "Leave It To Us," given October 26, 1949, with Helen Sherburn directing. We received our class rings and were real proud of ourselves. Most of us were in the Public Speaking Play "Huckleberry Finn" which we gave February 28, 1951. We ended our Junior year by giving the Seniors a reception at the Kenton Country Club, Kenton, May 6, 1950. We had an enjoyable evening together.

The Senior year started off with a bang. We gave our Senior Play October 20, 1950, "Here Come The Brides" with George McCoy as our director. We then went to Failor's Studio and had our Senior pictures taken.

Class History Con't.

The Juniors gave us a reception April 20, 1951 at the Kenton Country Club, Kenton. We had a fine meal, followed by a program and rest of the evening was enjoyed dancing.

Senior day was held May 18, 1951 giving an assembly and a review of the year. Baccalaureate and Commencement was held May 20, 1951. On Saturday Night, May 26, we were guests of the Alumni with a meal, program, and dancing. The next Monday, May 28, we left on our Senior trip. We boarded a Greyhound Bus at Kenton enroute to Detroit, Michigan. After we arrived in Detroit and ate our dinners we enjoyed the rest of the day sightseeing. That evening we went to see Cleveland and Detroit play baseball and afterwards we retired to our hotel. Tuesday, May 29, we went to Greenfield Village and spent the day. That evening we went on a Mystery Tour around Detroit. On Wednesday, May 30, the last day of our trip we watch a Declaration Day Parade and left in the afternoon to journey home. We arrived home and decided that we as the Senior Class were now "Launched, but not Anchored".

Our teachers were 1st. Mary Ellis & Elouise Hall Hanson; 2nd Mary Scott & Mollie Stanfield; 3rd Ann Swallem & Blanche Cummins; 4th Anna McElroy & Ruby Carman; 5th Ruby Carman; 6th F.E. McGlaughlin; 7th Floyd Hurley; 8th Virginia St. Louis; and our High School teachers were Martha Long; Mary Dickerson; Helen D. Sherburn; Shirley Wissinger; Evelyn Kneisel; Ruth Spangler; Walter Spangler; Margaret Bozarth; Hope Long; Dorothy Kritzler; Robert Eley; Donald T. Mayor; Dale Richenbaugh; John Stanfield; Evan Soash; and E. B. W. Cotterman.

Your Class Historian,

Mary Ann Zimmerman

Senior Class Prophecy

As I came from my apartment and started down Pennsylvania Avenue who should I meet but Mr. Soash and the class of "57". After our surprised greeting Mr. Soash asked if I might show them some interesting sights around Washington D.C.

As I walked along with the class of "57" and Mr. Soash I thought of my senior days and asked Mr. Soash if he knew the whereabouts of my classmates and this is what he told me.

Dorothy Cramer the athlete of our class is pitcher for the Chicago Cuties, she recently pitched a no hit no run game against the Springfield Sallies.

Mary Ann Zimmerman received her A.B. in college and is now teaching in Southern California University. Her husband, Cloyd Lawrence is president of the Gulf Oil Company there.

Norma Jean Linn has now replaced Millie the Model for the Hanover Modeling Agency. Incidentally, Norma isn't married yet. She just couldn't settle down to one man.

Charles Shaw is now a rich man for he invented a Chevolet that runs with jet pulpulsion. If you see a streak going down the highway that is a Chevie made by Shaw.

La Verne Hughes has also profited by Charlie's invention for he now owns a junk yard and a garage. His motto is "You Wreck'em and I'll Fix'em."

Louise England gave up her teaching career and is employed by her father-in-law at Scott's Market in Ada the time she isn't taking care of her little Johns and her big one.

Prophecy Cont.

Jim Johnson was recently voted as the world's greatest Disco Jockey. You can hear him anytime over station P.U.N.K. His program is called the Johnson Jazz.

Jeannie Mc Creary is now married to Don Plott and now has two dark-haired boys. She and her husband own a night club in Alger called the "Kubbies Klub."

Gilbert Campbell, the farmer of our class, married Jeralou Parker and they now own a 1000 acre farm. They are raising cows and little Campbells.

Sue Haney finished her four years of college and is now a Hardin County Cooking Demonstrator what time she isn't cooking for her husband at their home in Alger.

I said goodbye to Mr. Soash and the class of "57" and hurried home. My husband, Flash and the twins Bam and Alakazam (nicknames of course) will be ready for dinner. They will understand when I tell them about my classmates.

Your classmate,

Audrey Vermillion

Class Will.

We, the Seniors of 50 and 51, being of sound minds and bodies, do hereby will the following:

Mr. Cotterman and his board of education, to all Seventh and Eighth grade boys.

Mr. Beard, to all the future scientists of his Physics Class.

Mr. Soash, to the future basketball teams.

Mr. Mc Coy, to the "52" Senior Play cast.

Mrs. Wissinger, to the 1952 Y-Teens.

Mrs. Sherburn, to the coming Speech Class.

Mrs. Kritzler, to the Home Ec Class of 1952.

I, Gilbert Campbell, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Philip Conley and Russell Parker; also my ability to play basketball to Loren Guyton.

I, Dorothy Cramer, will my baseball ability to Elmer Nichols and my quiet shy ways to Ann Parker.

I, Louise England, will my smile to Gale Moore and my fountain pen to Irene England.

I, Sue Haney, will my ability to get to school just before the bell rings to Tom Rice and my place as Editor of the Annual to Louise Clapp.

I, La Verne Hughes, will my ability to give snappy answers in History and English Class to Donavon Hughes; also my shortness to Don Prater.

I, Jim Johnson, will my dark lovely curls to Kash "Tony" Allen and my small feet to Thomas Gibson.

I, Norma Jean Linn, will my ability to get places in a hurry to Evelyn "muscles" Symonds and my false eyelashes to Anna Lause.

I, Jean Mc Creary, will my earrings to Gordon Holbrook and my diamond ring to Dana Green.

I, Charles Shaw, will my ability to play basketball in my Senior year to Denny Hughes. and my driving ability to Janet Ramsdell.

I, Audery Vermillion, will my dress to Kaiser to Elaine Lawrence and my Baton twirling ability to all the future Majorettes in Alger High.

I, Mary Ann Zimmerman, will my ability to teach to Sandra Ramsdell and my fast typing to Phyllis Zimmerman.

Our Pet Peeves

Oh, gee whiz! I think there ought to be a law against it! We just start to get rested up from our summer vacation when they make us come back to school again.

I wouldn't mind going to school if they'd put in elevators so we wouldn't have to climb all those stairs!-----and is all that homework really necessary?

Well it certainly seems to me that this building is always too cold! ----- That is except when it's too warm.

My goodness! Hasn't this weather been something? Is it really true that Jim is considering having a snow plow put on his "model A" so he won't have so much trouble getting down Shadyvale road?

We've had some good movies this year, but it seems to me that they always come during study periods. And what do you think of the new seating arrangement? Of course, though, Norma Jean and Charles don't mind at all.

Gosh, I don't think I'll ever be the same again after the history tests we've had this year. Mrs. Wissing, how do you think of all those questions?

We had our play in the fall this year, but when spring came and the Juniors began rehearsing, we had a grand time reminiscing, and I am sure we all wished we were Juniors again and putting on our first play.

Despite all our arguments there is one thing I can safely say we agree on. ---- We just don't understand the gas and steam engines that Mr. Beard tried so hard to explain to us in Physics Class.

And speaking of agreeing, when all is said and done, I'm sure we all agree that Alger High is tops with us.

PLAYERS ABILITIES

GILBERT CAMPBELL was our captain this year. He was very valuable in setting up plays and holding the team together.

JIMMY JOHNSON was the other senior on the squad. He will be missed for his height and his ability to make that shot from the side.

KASH ALLEN carried his share and more in rebounding and racking up points this year. He was our high point man of the year.

DON PRATER controlled the backboards on rebounds. And when he got hot there was no stopping him.

HEBER CONLEY was another point getter. He was our fastbreak man. When we threw the ball to the other end of the floor, Heber was there.

GORDON HOLBROOKS was the team's sparkplug. When the team slowed down, Gordon was in there fighting and battling it back to the top.

FAIR MCGLAUGHLIN was another spark plug. He could really hit from the corners and his height was always a help.

To the reserve I have to say that they made us really work for our positions on the squad. That really helped us in our game work.

Jokes

Sergeant: "Why is it important not to lose your head in an attack?"

Recruit: "Because that would leave no place to put your helmet."

"Tell the court how you came to take the car."

Well, the car was standing in front of the cemetery, so I thought the owner was dead."

Customer: "Is this tea or coffee? It tastes exactly like Kerosene."

Waiter: "If it tastes like kerosene, it's positively tea-because our coffee tastes like turpentine."

Customer (Trice micked by the barber's razor) "Hey, barber give me a glass of water."

Barber: "What's wrong, sir, hair in your mouth?"

Customer: "Now, I want to see if my neck leaks."

Fash: By the way, that dress you're wearing.

Marlene: Oh, its nothing.

Kash: You're so right.

Mother: "Ann, when you wait on the table tonight, be careful not to spill anything."

Ann: "Don't worry, I know when to keep my mouth shut."

Charles: "Are you filthy rich?"

Jimmy: "No "

Charles: "Are you filthy poor?"

Jimmy: "No, just filthy".

The absent-minded superintendent drove up alongside his house. He glanced into his empty garage and gasped, leaped back into his car, raced to his insurance agent's office, and reported excitedly: "My car's been stolen again."

Hostess: Won't you have something more Jimmy?

Jimmy: "No,,thank you.I'm full."

Hostess: "Well put some of this fruit in your pocets to eat on the way home."

Jimmy: "No, thank you, they're full too."

A lady had just purchased a postage stamp at a sub-station. "Must I stick it on myself?" she asked the clerk. "Positively not, madam," replied the postal clerk. "It will accomplish more if you stick it on the envelope."

Richards Sneaky, in his decrepit truck, drove up to the toll bridge.

"Fifty cents," cried the gateman. "Sold," replied Richard.

Jokes

Teacher: "Where was the declaration of Independence signed?"

Audrey: At the bottom I guess.

Mr. Beard: Son, when Abe Lincoln was your age he was making his own living.

Gene: Yes, and when he was your age he was President.

Jim: "Yep, the engagement is off she won't marry me."

Gilbert: why's that? Didn't you tell her about your rich uncle?

Jim: "I sure did. Now she's my aunt."

Norma: I declare Charley, every time you see that little blue-eyed blonde your brain stops working.

Charles: That's not true. My brain stopped working long before I met her.

Jerry U.: You never used to roll your own cigarette before. Why do you do so now?

Bob S.: Because the doctor told me I needed a little exercise.

Jean M.: There's nothing in the world harder than a diamond, is there?

Don: Yes, sweetheart-keeping up the installment payments on it.

Gordon: Don't drive so fast around the corners. It makes me nervous.

Janet: If you don't want to get scared do as I do, shut your eyes when we come to the corners.

There were three stores in a row. One day the owner in the right hand store put up a sign, "Fire Sale". The man on the left end put up a sign, "Bankruptcy sale."

The man in the middle was stymied for a while. Then he came out with a sign, "Main Entrance."

Mr. McCoy: Does a rabbit's foot really bring good luck?

Mr. Soash: I should say so. My wife felt one in my money pocket once and thought it was a mouse.

About a year after her husband died, the widow herself died. When she arrived at the Pearly Gates she asked if she might see her former husband.

"What's his name?"

"Joe Smith."

"You'll have to give us a better identification. How about his last words? We classify new arrivals that way."

"Well," she replied, "just before he died, Joe said, Katie, if you ever waste any of my hard earned dollars, I'll turn over in my grave."

"Oh, sure we know him. We call him Whirling Joe up here."

Mr. Johnson: Don't you think our son gets his intelligence from me?

Mrs. Johnson: He must. I've still got mine.

Doctor: How's the patient this morning?

Nurse: I think he's regaining consciousness. He tried to blow the fear off his medicine.

A Sad Tale

There was a young person named Ted, who died before going to bed On lobster and ham and pickle and jam, and when he awoke he was dead.

New Clerk: What do you do when a customer forgets his change?

Manager: You tap on the counter with a dollar bill.
